

Title of Motion Picture

Fearless Fido

Produced and Manufactured by
PATHE EXCHANGE, Inc.
NEW YORK, N. Y.

Copyrighted

©CLM 2167

FABLE NO. 64 - Released - September 3, 1922

JUL 20 1922

©CLM 2167 ✓

THE FABLE OF
FEARLESS FIDO ✓

Fido is a canine pet of little Billy. The young master goes on a duck hunting trip equipped with a butterfly net. He stands on the shore of the lake and tries to net the ducks as they fly to the water. Even though Billy lands a duck now and then, his prisoners soon escape. Suddenly a duck flies into the net and pulls it out of little Billie's hands. Bearing the catcher, the fowl soars aloft. So, Billy decides to use his dog as a duck-decoy. He places a duck-head mask over Fido and sends the canine out on a raft. In mid-stream a duck comes up and flirts with Fido. Meanwhile Billy is playing with some bugs and has forgotten all about his pup. The dog "quacks" to attract attention. The duck becomes very flirtatious and jumps upon the raft, pestering Fido with her tricks. He wigwags to Billy for help. The boy operates a sling-shot with poor aim. The shots hit Fido instead of the duck. But one shot hits the mark and so infuriates the duck that she seizes poor Fido's tail. The frantic dog jumps overboard, and after swimming about in circles dives beneath the surface. A few minutes later Fido swims ashore and displays the duck's wishbone to Billy. It happens that Farmer Al. Falfa has a very mischievous bear who bothers with bees. After a develish escapade the Bear escapes. The animal's antics sadly aggravate the farmer so he posts a sign, offering a reward of $100 for him---dead or alive. Billy and Fido read this sign and tell the farmer that they will seek the adventurer. Billy places a bee-hive over Fido and the two go off to the forest. The young master places Fido amidst a grove of trees and hides a short distance away. Bruin scents the fresh dog meat and comes out from his lair to paw the canine. Billy shoots at the bear with teasing effect. The dog makes a sudden get-away and bruin pursues him. The two approach Billy and the bear goes after him as Fido runs up to his master. The chase continues into a cave from which Billy soon comes flying out. He runs away to the Farmer and they both cry over what they believe is the death of Fido. But, to their surprise, a few minutes later Fido comes into view preceded by a quartette of young bears and dragging the bad bear by the tail. Fido steps forward to Farmer Al. Falfa and gets the reward.

Moral:- Thus we learn that---"You can't keep a good man down".

* * *

This document is from the Library of Congress
“Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection,
1912-1977”

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004>

Class M Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002>

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress